How does it work

Respondents are sent a Facet5 Personality questionnaire from our system.

This consists of 106 questions and takes approximately 15-20 minutes to complete.

The questionnaire is available in 38 languages.

Upon completion reports are automatically available for download by Facet5 or by clients on their dedicated workbench.

We provide automation services for some of our profiles, such as Spotlight, Career Motivator, SuperSkills and Key Qualities. These reports can be returned to the respondent via their own secure myFacet5 web app account created from our system.

All data, including the questionnaire is encrypted and securely managed in accordance with current GDPR regulations.

Multiple report outputs are created from the one questionnaire. Additional questions are required for 360 based products.

All data, including the questionnaire is encrypted and securely managed in accordance with current GDPR regulations.

Account administration and setup

We charge a yearly account setup and services fee per client. This includes access to and support for a client account that allows for easy self-administration of Facet5 in your business.

For accredited users it provides access to our Knowledge and Support Centre along with online support and guidance from our team. Administration fees are based on client size and number of users.

Why us?

For the last 35 years, Facet5 has taken reliable, trusted personality data and turned it into meaningful insights. We believe our trait-based model of personality, provides profound insights, that extend beyond surface-level behaviours, to an understanding of our core, enduring personality traits.

This approach recognises that our personality traits help us build a picture of ourselves that extends over time and across different contexts, making it possible to map a long-term development path for individuals. By using a trait-based model, Facet5 enables coaches and clients to reliably predict behaviours and reactions across various professional and personal scenarios.

The comparative nature of Facet5 allows individuals to understand their unique personality style in relation to others; fostering better interpersonal relationships and effective communication. This insight supports an appreciation of diversity, workplace dynamics and to enable different personality types to work together effectively.

In comparison, ipsative-based tools; which categorise personalities into broad types (such as colours or simple letter combinations) oversimplify and generalise individual behaviours. Facet5 avoids the pitfalls of over-generalisation by offering a nuanced view of an individual's unique personality profile. It supports the development of tailored, specific, and actionable development strategies that respect and leverage an individual's unique strengths.

How does it all work?

By becoming a member our Facet5 community you are joining a diverse and amazing group of people, just like you. We all have a passion for helping others realise their potential.

Step 1: Become a Facet5 Accredited Practitioner

Our programs focus on building confidence and capability to apply your new knowledge and insights from day one. They are run virtually or in person and provide detailed knowledge of the Facet5 model of personality, along with; the methods and tools to interpret Facet5 Personality profiles and to debrief another person's profile in a coaching conversation.

Step 2: Join a Business Academy Program

When you are ready, we will setup your own business account and enrol you in one of our Business Academy programs. So, you are not only gaining a professional accreditation but also continuous business support. These sessions cover a wide range of topics that support you in building not only your knowledge, but how to create business value using Facet5.

Step 3: Join our learning community

As a member of the Facet5 community, you will have access to an extensive suite of materials that will aid in the application and understanding of the Facet5 framework. Most exciting of all, is that you will be part of a global community, offering opportunities to connect, share, and learn from diverse experiences and practices. Our masterclass programs and learning events are crafted to keep you at the forefront of best practice, ensuring you remain updated with the latest tools, techniques and research in the field of personality and development coaching.

Facet5's personalised approach ensures that development strategies are not only aligned with each person's inherent traits but also finely tuned to their personal and professional growth aspirations.
